

Northern Virginia Bead Society Presents a Workshop Series with Shona Bevan

Northern Virginia Bead Society Presents Shona Bevan

Borgia Pendant (top left)

Borgia is a series of three double-sided pendants made with beautiful teardrop shaped pearls and embellished with crystal bicones. The workshop will cover the techniques to create the flower pendant as well as how to make a beautiful elegant rope to suspend it from. Bead the rope with all seed beads for a simple look or incorporate crystals for some easy to wear glamour. Kits available in multiple color ways and with additional kits for a co-ordinating crystal rope.

Level: Intermediate

Stitches: right angle weave

Prerequisite: right angle weave stitch

Kit Fee: TBD

Colorways: Pastel blue/pink; pastel grey/yellow; blackberry/bronze; black/grey; green/silver; purple/bronze; petrol/jade

Friday, June 15th 2018; 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Kabichi Bracelet (middle right)

Combining peyote, herringbone and netting stitches this statement bracelet showcases a set of Swarovski Elements Rivolis captured in a net of seed beads and pearls; finished off with an integral beaded clasp. Each component features an attractive closed back so the underside of your bracelet looks almost as pretty as the front.

Level: Intermediate

Stitches: peyote and herringbone
