There was discussion of freeform peyote by Kristen. Paulette may have done a freeform peyote class. Other suggestions for meetings included:

River Rose vessels -- buying the instructions would be necessary for a beadalong.

Julia Pretl did a Panda box for Bead Soup. We may look into that for NVBS.

The website will be updated with Sabrina's information for November.

Another suggestion was the UK Jubilee box, as was a Katie Dean project, also from the UK.
